THE STORY OF CASANERA

Marie Ceccaldi, deeply passionate about her native Corsica, draws inspiration from the heritage of her roots.

The daughter of a pioneer in natural cosmetics — founder of “Calvi Nature” in 1979 — she grew up surrounded by plants and caring formulas. Her herbal compendium, lovingly passed down through three generations, is a true treasure: her great-grandmother, a healer, used to prepare remedies from wild plants, and the island’s women carefully preserved their beauty secrets.

From this tradition was born Casanera – Made in Maquis, an exceptional brand that is 100% natural, demanding, and true to authentic craftsmanship.

Bathed in sunlight, the Corsican land is home to a precious flora with powerful dermatological properties. Between sea and mountains, wild plants thrive in a rich and unspoiled soil.

Casanera harvests these Corsican plants exclusively by hand, through sustainable foraging. The essential oils are then distilled locally, in Balagne, using ancestral methods that respect both nature and tradition.

THE CASANERA EXPERIENCE

“Botanica Corsa”

Beyond its authentic expertise in natural cosmetics rooted in Corsican botany, Casanera invites you to experience its vision of holistic and integrative well-being through an immersive journey between sea and mountains. Each treatment is a discovery of Balagne, the nurturing land of the peninsula.

Your senses are awakened in every dimension, with unique scents — including our signature olfactory note of clementine petit grain — gently accompanying you throughout your experience.

Our face and body treatments incorporate advanced techniques and are designed exclusively by Casanera to deliver both effectiveness and excellence in the treatment room. Lithotherapy, hot and cold therapies, and anti-aging fascia face lifting techniques offer a path to deep disconnection and new holistic benefits.

Each treatment is enhanced by the powerful botanical virtues of ingredients such as immortelle, borage oil, and prickly pear seed oil — all working in harmony to reveal your skin’s natural radiance.
